Sanborn Exchange Hotel

Nestled in the heart of Sanborn since 1912, this property has been a long-standing part of the community's railroad history. This building has had many names from The Sanborn Exchange Hotel to The Marlboro Inn. It has persevered through two major fires and has always come out for the better. We are proud to carry on the tradition of the "Marlboro". It was born in 1912 but it was resurrected in 2024. Please join us in celebrating the legacy of this wonderful building as it continues for a new generation of Sanborn residents.
